And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written 24 unto them; because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume 25 them, and to destroy them; but when the matter came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head; and that he and his sons should 26 be hanged on the gallows. Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which 27 had come unto them, the Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to the writing thereof, and according to the appointed time 28 thereof, every year; and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them ¹perish from 29 their seed. Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all ²authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. 30 And he sent letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, 31 with words of peace and truth, to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had ordained for themselves and for their seed, ³in the matter of the fastings and their 32 cry. And the commandment of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

10 And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the 2 sea. And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, wheremto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the 3 kings of Media and Persia? For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren; seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

1 THERE was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was ¹Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that 2 feared God, and eschewed evil. And there were born unto him seven sons 3 and three daughters. His ²substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of 4 all the children of the east. And his sons went and held a feast in the house of each one upon his day; and they sent and called for their three sisters 5 to eat and to drink with them. And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and ³renounced God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and ⁴Satan came also 7 among them. And the Lord said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and 8 from walking up and down in it. And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job? ⁵for there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that 9 feareth God, and escheweth evil. Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, 10 Doth Job fear God for nought? Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath, on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his

And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; 7 only spare his life. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown. And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat among the ashes. 9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still hold fast thine integrity? renounce 10 God, and die. But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the ⁹ foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their 13 heads toward heaven. So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his ¹⁰ grief was very great.

In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God with foolishness.	3 After this opened Job his mouth, and 2 cursed his day. And Job answered and said: 3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, And the night which said, There is a man child conceived. . 4 Let that day be darkness; Let not God ¹¹ regard it from above, Neither let the light shine upon it. 5 Let darkness and ¹² the shadow of death claim it for their own; Let a cloud dwell upon it; Let all that maketh black the day terrify it. 6 As for that night, let thick darkness seize upon it: Let it not ¹³ rejoice among the days of the year; Let it not come into the number of the months. 7 Lo, let that night be ¹⁴ barren; Let no joyful voice come therein. 8 Let them curse it that curse the day, Who are ¹⁵ ready to rouse up leviathan. 9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark: Let it look for light, but have none; Neither let it behold the eyelids of the morning: 10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, Nor hid trouble from mine eyes. 11 Why died I not from the womb?

 I should have slept; then had I been at rest:

 And life unto the bitter in soul;
 21 Which ³ long for death, but it cometh not; And dig for it more than for hid treasures;

And are not his days like the days of an hireling?

2 As a servant that earnestly desireth the shadow,
And as an hireling that looketh for his wages;

3 So am I made to possess months of vanity,
And wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say,
⁵When shall I arise? but the night is long;

And I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust;

My skin ⁶closeth up and breaketh out afresh.

6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle,

And are spent without hope.

7 Oh remember that my life is wind:
Mine eye shall no more see good.

8 The eye of him that seeth me shall behold me no more:

Thine eyes shall be upon me, but I shall not be.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away,

So he that goeth down to ⁷Sheol shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house,
Neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;

12 Am I a sea, or a sea-monster,
That thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me,
My couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams,
And terrifiest me through visions:

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling,
And death rather than these my bones.

16 ⁸I loathe my life; I ⁹would not live alway:

Let me alone; for my days are ¹⁰vanity.

17 What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him,
And that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him,

18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning,

And try him every moment?

19 How long wilt thou not look away from me,

Nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 If I have sinned, what ¹¹do I unto thee,
O thou ¹²watcher of men?

Why hast thou set me as a mark for thee,

So that I am a burden to myself?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity?

For now shall I lie down in the dust;
And thou shalt seek me diligently, but I shall not be.

8 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things?
And how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a mighty wind?

3 Doth God pervert judgement?
Or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 ¹³If thy children have sinned against him,

And he have delivered them into the hand of their transgression:

5 If thou wouldest seek diligently unto God,

And make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright;
Surely now he would awake for thee,

And make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 And though thy beginning was small,
Yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age,

And apply thyself to that which their fathers have searched out:

9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, Because our days upon earth are a shadow:)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee,

And utter words out of their heart?

	When he overturneth them in his anger.	As the eagle that swoopeth on the prey.
	6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place,	27 If I say, I will forget my complaint,
	And the pillars thereof tremble.	I will put off my sad countenance, and ²³ be of good cheer:	²³ Heb. brighten up.
	7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not;	28 I am afraid of all my sorrows,
	And sealeth up the stars.	I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.
⁹ Heb. high places.	8 Which alone stretcheth out the heavens,	29 I shall be condemned;
	And treadeth upon the ⁹ waves of the sea.	Why then do I labour in vain?
	9 Which maketh the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,	30 If I wash myself ²⁴ with snow water, And ²⁵ make my hands never so clean;	²⁴ An other reading is, with snow.
	And the chambers of the south.	31 Yet wilt thou plunge me in the ditch, And mine own clothes shall abhor me.	²⁵ Heb. cleanse my hands with ty.
	10 Which doeth great things past finding out;	32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him,
	Yea, marvellous things without number.	That we should come together in judgement.
	11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not:	33 There is no ²⁶ daysman betwixt us, That might lay his hand upon us both.	²⁶ Or, umpire
	He passeth on also, but I perceive him not.	34 Let him take his rod away from me, And let not his terror make me afraid:
¹⁰ Or, turn him back	12 Behold, he seizeth the prey , who can ¹⁰ hinder him?	35 Then would I speak, and not fear him; For I am not so in myself.
	Who will say unto him, What doest thou?
	13 God will not withdraw his anger;

10 My soul is weary of my life;
I will give free course to my complaint;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me;
Shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldst oppress,
That thou shouldst despise the ¹ work of thine hands,
And shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh,
Or seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are thy days as the days of man,
Or thy years as man's days,

6 That thou inquirest after mine iniquity,
And searchest after my sin,

7 Although thou knowest that I am not wicked;
And there is none that can deliver out of thine hand?

8 Thine hands have framed me and fashioned me
Together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast fashioned me as clay;
And wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk,
And curdled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour,
And thy ² visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 Yet these things thou didst hide in thine heart;

I know that this is with thee:

14 If I sin, then thou markest me,
And thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, woe unto me;
And if I be righteous, yet shall I not lift up my head;

³ Being filled with ignominy
And looking upon mine affliction.

16 And if my head exalt itself, thou huntest me as a lion:

And again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.

17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me,
And increasest thine indignation upon me;

⁴ Changes and warfare are with me.

18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb?

I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me.

19 I should have been as though I had not been;

I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 Are not my days few? ⁵ Cease then,

And let me alone, that I may ⁶ take comfort a little,

21 Before I go whence I shall not return,
Even to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death;

22 A land of thick darkness, as darkness itself;

A land of the shadow of death, without any order,

And where the light is as darkness.

11 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered?

And should a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy boastings make men hold their peace?

And when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For thou sayest, My doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in thine eyes.

5 But Oh that God would speak,
And open his lips against thee;

6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom,

⁷ That it is manifold in effectual working!

Know therefore that God ⁸ exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserve.

7 ⁹ Canst thou by searching find out God?
Canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 ¹⁰ It is high as heaven; what canst thou do?

Deeper than ¹¹ Sheol; what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth,

And broader than the sea.

10 If he pass through, and shut up,
And ¹² call unto judgement, then who can hinder him?

11 For he knoweth vain men:
He seeth iniquity also, ¹³ even though he consider it not.

12 ¹⁴ But vain man is void of understanding,

Yea, man is born as a wild ass's colt.

13 If thou set thine heart aright,
And stretch out thine hands toward him;

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away,

And let not unrighteousness dwell in thy tents;

15 Surely then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot;

Yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear:

16 For thou shalt forget thy misery;
Thou shalt remember it as waters that are passed away:

17 And thy life shall ¹⁵ be clearer than the noonday;

Though there be darkness, it shall be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope;

⁶ Heb. brighten up.

⁷ Or, For sound wisdom is manifold.

⁸ Or, premiteth (Heb. causeth to be forgotten) unto thee of thine iniquity.

⁹ Or, Canst thou find out the deep things of God?

² Or, care.

³ Or, I am filled with ignominy, but look thou... for it increaseth; thou &c.

⁴ Or, Host after host is against me.

⁵ Another reading is, let him cease, and leave me alone.

Yea, thou shalt search about thee, and shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid;

Yea, many shall make suit unto thee.

20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, And ¹ they shall have no way to flee, And their hope shall be the giving up of the ghost.

12 Then Job answered and said,

2 No doubt but ye are the people, And wisdom shall die with you.

3 But I have understanding as well as you;

I am not inferior to you:

Yea, who knoweth not such things as these?

4 I am as one that is a laughing-stock to his neighbour,

A man that called upon God, and he answered him:

The just, the perfect man is a laughing-stock.

5 In the thought of him that is at ease there is contempt for misfortune;

It is ready for them whose foot slippeth.

6 The tents of robbers prosper, And they that provoke God are secure;

² Into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee;

And the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee;

And the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not ³ in all these, That the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing,

And the ⁴ breath of all mankind.

11 Doth not the ear try words, Even as the palate tasteth its meat?

12 ⁵ With aged men is wisdom, And in length of days understanding.

13 With him is wisdom and might; He hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again;

He shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up;

Again, he sendeth them out, and they overthrow the earth.

16 With him is strength and ⁶ effectual working;

The deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, And judges maketh he fools.

18 He looseth the bond of kings, And bindeth their loins with a girdle.

19 He leadeth priests away spoiled, And overthroweth the mighty.

20 He removeth the speech of the trusty,

And taketh away the understanding of the elders.

21 He poureth contempt upon princes, And looseth the belt of the strong.

22 He discovereth deep things out of darkness, And bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them:

He spreadeth the nations abroad, and bringeth them in.

24 He taketh away the heart of the chiefs of the people of the ⁸ earth, And causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They grope in the dark without light, And he maketh them to ⁹ stagger like a drunken man.

13 Lo, mine eye hath seen all this, Mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 What ye know, the same do I know also:

I am not inferior unto you.

3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, And I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies, Ye are all physicians of no value.

5 Oh that ye would altogether hold your peace!

And it should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, And hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will ye speak unrighteously for God, And talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye ¹⁰ respect his person? Will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? Or as one ¹¹ deceiveth a man, will ye ¹² deceive him?

10 He will surely reprove you, If ye do secretly ¹³ respect persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid,

And his dread fall upon you?

12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes,

Your defences are defences of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak,

And let come on me what will.

14 ¹⁴ Wherefore should I take my flesh in my teeth,

And put my life in mine hand?

15 ¹⁵ Though he slay me, yet will I wait for him:

Nevertheless I will ¹⁶ maintain my ways before him.

16 ¹⁷ This also shall be my salvation;

¹⁸ For a godless man shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech,

And let my declaration be in your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I ¹⁹ am righteous.

20 Only do not two things unto me,
Then will I not hide myself from thy face:

21 Withdraw thine hand far from me;
And let not thy terror make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer;
Or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins?
Make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face,
And holdest me for thine enemy?

25 Wilt thou harass a driven leaf?
And wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me,
And makest me to inherit the iniquities
of my youth:

27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and markest all my paths;
Thou drawest thee a line about the soles of my feet:

28¹ Though I am like a rotten thing that consumeth,
Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 Man that is born of a woman
Is of few days, and full of trouble.

2 He cometh forth like a flower, and² is cut down:
He fleeth also as a shadow, and con-tinueth not.

3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one,
And bringest me into judgement with thee?

4³ Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months is with thee,
And thou hast appointed his bounds
that he cannot pass;

6 Look away from him, that he may⁴ rest,
Till he shall⁵ accomplish, as an hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth,
And the stock thereof die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud,
And put forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and⁶ wasteth away:
Yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11⁷ As the waters⁸ fail from the sea,
And the river decayeth and drieth up;

12 So man lieth down and riseth not:
Till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake,
Nor be roused out of their sleep.

13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in ⁹ Sheol,
That thou wouldest keep me secret,
until thy wrath be past,

That thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he live again?
All the days of my warfare¹⁰ would I wait,

Till my¹¹ release should come.

15¹² Thou shouldst call, and I would answer thee:

Thou wouldest have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 But now thou numberest my steps:
Dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag,
And thou fastest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling¹³
cometh to nought,

And the rock is removed out of its place;

19 The waters wear the stones;
The overflowings thereof wash away
the dust of the earth:

And thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailest for ever against him,
and he passeth;

Thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away¹⁴ altered his state (?)

21 His sons come to honour, and he

15. 15. 17 are men that speak of words

	12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? And why do thine eyes wink?	And shall cast off his flower as the olive.
	13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, And lettest such words go out of thy mouth.	34 For the company of the godless shall be barren, And fire shall consume the tents of bribery.
	14 What is man, that he should be clean? And he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?	35 They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity, And their belly prepareth deceit.
	15 Behold, he putteth no trust in his holy ones; Yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.	16 Then Job answered and said, 2 I have heard many such things: 3 Miserable comforters are ye all.	9 Or, Weary-some
1 Or, that which is	16 How much less ¹ one that is abominable and corrupt, A man that drinketh iniquity like water!	3 Shall ¹⁰ vain words have an end? Or what provoketh thee that thou answerest?	10 Heb. words of wind.
	17 I will shew thee, hear thou me; And that which I have seen I will declare:	4 I also could speak as ye do; If your soul were in my soul's stead, I could join words together against you, And shake mine head at you.
	18 (Which wise men have told From their fathers, and have not hid it;	5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, And the solace of my lips should assuage your grief .
	19 Unto whom alone the land was given, And no stranger passed among them:)	6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged: And though I forbear, ¹¹ what am I eased?	11 Heb. what departeth from me?
2 Or, And years that are numbered are laid up &c.	20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, ² Even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor.	7 But now he hath made me weary: Thou hast made desolate all my company.
	21 A sound of terrors is in his ears; In prosperity the spoiler shall come upon him:	8 And thou hast ¹² laid fast hold on me, which is a witness against me : And my leanness riseth up against me, it testifieth to my face.	12 Or, shrivelled me

	24 Distress and anguish make him afraid; They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle:	10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth; They have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully: They gather themselves together against me.
3 Or, biddeth distance to	25 Because he hath stretched out his hand against God, And ³ behaveth himself proudly against the Almighty;	11 God delivereth me to the ungodly, And casteth me into the hands of the wicked.
1 Or, Upon	26 He runneth upon him with a stiff neck, ⁴ With the thick bosses of his bucklers:	12 I was at ease, and he brake me asunder; Yea, he hath taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces: He hath also set me up for his mark.
5 Heb. cut off.	27 Because he hath covered his face with his fatness, And made collops of fat on his flanks;	13 His ¹⁴ archers compass me round about, He cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; He poureth out my gall upon the ground.	14 Or, arrows Or, mighty ones

17 Although there is no violence in mine hands,
And my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood,
And let my cry¹ have no resting place.

19 Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven,

And he that voucheth for me is on high.

20 My friends scorn me:

But mine eye poureth out tears unto God;

21² That he would maintain the right of a man with God,

And of a son of man with his neighbour!

22 For when a few years are come,
I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

17 My spirit is consumed, my days are extinct,

The grave is ready for me.

2 Surely there are mockers with me,
And mine eye abideth in their provocation.

3 Give now a pledge, be surety for me with thyself;
Who is there that will strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding:

Therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

5 He that denounceth his friends for a prey,

Even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath made me also a byword of the people;

And I am become an open abhorring.

7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow,

And all my members are as a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be astonished at this,
And the innocent shall stir up himself against the godless.

9 Yet shall the righteous hold on his way.
And he that hath clean hands shall wax stronger and stronger.

10 But return ye, all of you, and come now:
⁶ And I shall not find a wise man among you.

11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off,

Even the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day:

The light, say they, is near⁸ unto the darkness.

13⁹ If I look for¹⁰ Sheol as mine house;
If I have spread my couch in the darkness;

14 If I have said to¹¹ corruption, Thou art my father;

To the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister ~~iniquity~~ iniquity man.

15 Where then is my hope?

And as for my hope, who shall see it?

16 It shall go down to the bars of¹⁰ Sheol,
When once there is rest in the dust.

18 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long will ye lay snares for words?
Consider, and afterwards we will speak.

3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts,
And are become unclean in your sight?

4 Thou that tearest thyself in thine anger,

Shall the earth be forsaken for thee?

Or shall the rock be removed out of its place?

5 Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out,

And the¹² spark of his fire shall not shine.

6 The light shall be dark in his tent,
And his lamp¹³ above him shall be put out.

7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened,

And his own counsel shall cast him down.

8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet,

And he walketh upon the toils.

9 A gin shall take him by the heel,
And a snare shall lay hold on him.

10 A noose is hid for him in the ground,
And a trap for him in the way.

11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side,

And shall chase him at his heels.

12 His strength shall be hungerbitten,
And calamity shall be ready¹⁴ for his halting.

13 It shall devour the¹⁵ members of his body,

Yea, the firstborn of death shall devour his members.

14 He shall be rooted out of his tent wherein he trusteth;

And¹⁶ he shall be brought to the king of terrors.

15¹⁷ There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his:

Brinstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

16 His roots shall be dried up beneath,
And above shall his branch¹⁸ be cut off.

17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth,

And he shall have no name in the street.

18 He shall be driven from light into darkness,

And chased out of the world.

19 He shall have neither son nor son's son among his people,

Nor any remaining where he sojourned.

20¹⁹ They that come after shall be astonished at his day,

As they that went before²⁰ were affrighted.

If I arise, they speak against me.

19 All⁷ my inward friends abhor me.

And they whom I loved are turned against me.

20 My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh,

And I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends;

For the hand of God hath touched me.

22 Why do ye persecute me as God,

And are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 Oh that my words were now written!

Oh that they were inscribed in a book!

24 That with an iron pen and lead

They were graven in the rock for ever!

25⁸ But I know that my⁹ redeemer liveth,
And that he shall stand up at the last upon the¹⁰ earth:

26¹¹ And after my skin hath been thus destroyed,

Yet¹² from my flesh shall I see God:

27 Whom I shall see¹³ for myself,
And mine eyes shall behold, and not¹⁴ another.

My reins are consumed within me.

28 If ye say, How we will persecute him!

¹⁵ Seeing that the root of the matter is found in¹⁶ me;

29 Be ye afraid of the sword:

For¹⁷ wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword,

That ye may know there is a judgement.

20 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Therefore do my thoughts give answer to me,

¹⁸ Even by reason of my haste that is in me.

3 I have heard the reproof which putteth me to shame,

¹⁹ And the spirit of my understanding answereth me.

4 Knowest thou not this of old time,

Since man was placed upon earth,

5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short,

And the joy of the godless but for a moment?

6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens,

And his head reach unto the clouds;

7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung:

They which have seen him shall say,
Where is he?

8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found:

Yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

9 The eye which saw him shall see him no more;

Neither shall his place any more behold him.

10²⁰ His children shall seek the favour of the poor,

And his hands shall give back his wealth.

11 His bones are full of his youth,

But it shall lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth,

Though he hide it under his tongue;

13 Though he spare it, and will not let it go,
But keep it still within his mouth;

14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned,
It is the gall of asps within him.

15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again:

God shall cast them out of his belly.

16 He shall suck the poison of asps:

The viper's tongue shall slay him.

17 He shall not look upon the rivers,
The flowing streams of honey and butter.

19 For he hath oppressed and forsaken the poor;

He hath violently taken away an house, ² and he shall not build it up.

20 Because he knew no quietness ³ within him,

He shall not save aught of that wherein he delighteth.

21 There was nothing left that he devoured not;

Therefore his prosperity shall not endure.

22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits:

The hand of every one that is in misery shall come upon him.

23 ⁴ When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fierceness of his wrath upon him,

And shall rain it upon him ⁵ while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon,

And the bow of brass shall strike him through.

25 He draweth it forth, and it cometh out of his body:

Yea, the glittering point cometh out of his gall;

Terrors are upon him.

26 All darkness is laid up for his treasures:

A fire not blown by man shall devour him;

⁶ It shall consume that which is left in his tent.

27 The heavens shall reveal his iniquity, And the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall depart, His goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God,

And the heritage appointed unto him by God.

21 Then Job answered and said,

2 Hear diligently my speech;

And let this be your consolations.

3 Suffer me, and I also will speak;

And after that I have spoken, ⁷ mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint ⁸ to man?

And why should I not be impatient?

5 ⁹ Mark me, and be astonished,

And lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am troubled, And horror taketh hold on my flesh.

7 Wherefore do the wicked live, Become old, yea, wax mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established with them in their sight,

And their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are ¹⁰ safe from fear, Neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; Their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock,

And their children dance.

12 They ¹¹ sing to the timbrel and harp, And rejoice at the sound of the pipe.

13 They spend their days in prosperity, And in a moment they go down to ¹² Sheol.

14 Yet they said unto God, Depart from us;

For we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him?

And what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 ¹³ Lo, their prosperity is not in their hand:

The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 ¹⁴ How oft is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out?

That their calamity cometh upon them?

That God distributeth sorrows in his anger?

18 That they are as stubble before the wind,

And as chaff that the storm carrieth away?

19 ¹⁵ Ye say, God layeth up his iniquity for his children.

Let him recompense it unto himself, that he may know it.

20 Let his own eyes see his destruction, And let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him,

When the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 Shall any teach God knowledge?

Seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 One dieth in his full strength, Being wholly at ease and quiet:

24 His ¹⁶ breasts are full of milk, And the marrow of his bones is moistened.

25 And another dieth in bitterness of soul, And never tasteth of good.

26 They lie down alike in the dust, And the worm covereth them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, And the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince?

And where is the tent wherein the wicked dwelt?

29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way?

And do ye not know their tokens?

30 That the evil man is ¹⁷ reserved to the day of calamity?

That they are ¹⁸ led forth to the day of wrath?

¹⁶ Or, milk pails

¹⁷ Or, spared in &c.
¹⁸ Or, led away in &c.

32 ¹ Yet shall he be borne to the grave,
And ² shall keep watch over the tomb.

33 The clouds of the valley shall be sweet unto him,

And all men shall draw after him,
As there were innumerable before him.

34 How then comfort ye me ³ in vain,
Seeing in your answers there remaineth only ⁴ falsehood?

22 Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Can a man be profitable unto God?

Surely he that is wise is profitable unto himself.

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous?

Or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Is it ⁵ for thy fear of him that he reproveth thee,

That he entereth with thee into judgment?

5 Is not thy wickedness great?

Neither is there any end to thine iniquities.

6 For thou hast taken pledges of thy brother for nought,
And stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink,
And thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for ⁶ the mighty man, he had the ⁷ earth;

And ⁸ the honourable man, he dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty,
And the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

10 Therefore snares are round about thee,
And sudden fear troubleth thee,

11 ⁹ Or darkness, that thou canst not see,
And abundance of waters cover thee.

12 Is not God in the height of heaven?
And behold the ¹⁰ height of the stars,
how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, What doth God know?

Can he judge through the thick darkness?

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not;

And he walketh ¹¹ in the circuit of heaven.

15 ¹² Wilt thou keep the old way
Which wicked men have trodden?

16 Who were snatched away before their time,
Whose foundation was poured out as a stream:

17 Who said unto God, Depart from us;
And, What can the Almighty do ¹³ for us?

18 Yet he filled their houses with good things:

But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 The righteous see it, and are glad;
And the innocent laugh them to scorn:

20 Saying, Surely they that did rise up against us are cut off,

And ¹⁵ the remnant of them the fire hath consumed.

21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace:

¹⁶ Thereby good shall come unto thee.

22 Receive, I pray thee, ¹⁷ the law from his mouth,

And lay up his words in thine heart.

23 If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up;

¹⁸ If thou put away unrighteousness far from thy tents.

24 And lay thou thy ¹⁹ treasure ²⁰ in the dust,

And the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks;

25 And the Almighty shall be thy ¹⁹ treasure,

And ²¹ precious silver unto thee.

26 For then shalt thou delight thyself in the Almighty,

And shalt lift up thy face unto God.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee;

And thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee;

And light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 When they ²² cast thee down, thou shalt say, There is lifting up;

And ²³ the humble person he shall save.

30 He shall deliver ²⁴ even him that is not innocent:

Yea, he shall be delivered through the cleanness of thine hands.

23 Then Job answered and said,

2 Even to-day is my complaint ²⁵ rebellious:

²⁶ My stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 Oh that I knew where I might find him,
That I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him,
And fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the words which he would answer me,

And understand what he would say unto me.

6 Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?

Nay; ²⁷ but he would give heed unto me.

7 There the upright might reason with him;

So should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there;

And backward, but I cannot perceive him:

9 On the left hand, when he doth work,
but I cannot behold him:

¹⁷ Because I was not cut off before the darkness,
 Neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.
²⁴⁸ Why are times not laid up by the Almighty?
 And why do not they which know him see his days?
² There are that remove the landmarks; They violently take away flocks, and feed them.
³ They drive away the ass of the fatherless,
 They take the widow's ox for a pledge.
⁴ They turn the needy out of the way:
 The ⁹poor of the earth hide themselves together.
⁵ Behold, as wild asses in the desert
 They go forth to their work, seeking diligently for ¹⁰meat;
 The wilderness yieldeth them food for their children.
⁶ They cut ¹¹their provender in the field; And they glean the vintage of the wicked.
⁷ They lie all night naked without clothing,
 And have no covering in the cold.
⁸ They are wet with the showers of the mountains,
 And embrace the rock for want of a shelter.
⁹ There are that pluck the fatherless from the breast,
 And ¹²take a pledge of the poor:
¹⁰ So that they go about naked without clothing,
 And being an-hungred they carry the sheaves;
¹¹ They make oil within the walls of these men;
 They tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

¹³ These are of them that rebel against the light;
 They know not the ways thereof, Nor abide in the paths thereof.

¹⁵ The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight,
 Saying, No eye shall see me:
 And he ¹⁴disguiseth his face.
¹⁶ In the dark they dig through houses:

 They know not the light.
¹⁷ For the morning is to all of them as the shadow of death;
 For they know the terrors of the shadow of death.
¹⁸¹⁶ He is swift upon the face of the waters;

²¹ He devoureth the barren that beareth not;

²²²⁰ He draweth away the mighty also by his power:

26 Then Job answered and said,

2 How hast thou helped him that is without power!

How hast thou saved the arm that hath no strength!

3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom,

And plentifully declared sound knowledge!

4 To whom hast thou uttered words?

And whose spirit came forth from thee?

5 They that are deceased tremble

Beneath the waters and the inhabitants thereof.

6 Sheol is naked before him,

And Abaddon hath no covering.

7 He stretcheth out the north over empty space,

And hangeth the earth upon nothing.

8 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds;

And the cloud is not rent under them.

9 He closeth in the face of his throne,

And spreadeth his cloud upon it.

10 He hath described a boundary upon the face of the waters,

Unto the confines of light and darkness.

11 The pillars of heaven tremble

And are astonished at his rebuke.

12 He stirreth up the sea with his power,

And by his understanding he smiteth through Rahab.

13 By his spirit the heavens are garnished;

His hand hath pierced the swift serpent.

14 Lo, these are but the outskirts of his ways:

And how small a whisper do we hear of him!

But the thunder of his power who can understand?

27 And Job again took up his parable, and said,

2 As God liveth, who hath taken away my right;

And the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul;

3 For my life is yet whole in me, And the spirit of God is in my nostrils;

4 Surely my lips shall not speak unrighteousness,

Neither shall my tongue utter deceit.

5 God forbid that I should justify you:

Till I die I will not put away mine integrity from me.

6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go:

My heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, And let him that riseth up against me be as the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the godless,

Though he get him gain,

When God taketh away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry,

When trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty,

And call upon God at all times?

11 I will teach you concerning the hand of God;

That which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; Why then are ye become altogether vain?

13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God,

And the heritage of oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword;

And his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death,

And his widows shall make no lamentation.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, And prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on,

And the innocent shall divide the silver.

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth;

And it sweepeth him out of his place.

He would fain flee out of his hand.

	28 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; And to depart from evil is understanding.	22 After my words they spake not again; And my speech dropped upon them.	25 Or, I smiled on them when they had no confidence
	29 And Job again took up his parable, and said,	23 And they waited for me as for the rain; And they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.	26 Or, were not confident
		24 ²⁵ If I laughed on them, they ²⁶ believed it not; And the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat as chief,
And dwelt as a king in the army,
As one that comforteth the mourners.

30 But now they that are younger than
I have me in derision, Whose fathers I disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, the strength of their hands, where-to should it profit me?

Men in whom ¹ripe age is perished.

3 They are gaunt with want and famine; ²They gnaw the dry ground, ³in the gloom of wasteness and desolation.

4 They pluck salt-wort by the bushes;
And the roots of the broom are ⁴their meat.

5 They are driven forth from the midst of men;

They cry after them as after a thief.

6 ⁵In the clefts of the valleys must they dwell,

In holes of the earth and of the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they bray;
Under the ⁶nettles they ⁷are gathered together.

8 They are children of fools, yea, children of ⁸base men;

They ⁹were scourged out of the land.

9 And now I am become their song,
Yea, I am a byword unto them.

10 They abhor me, they stand aloof from
me,

And spare not to spit ¹⁰in my face.

11 For he hath loosed ¹¹his cord, and afflicted me,

And they have cast off the bridle before
me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the ¹²rabble;
They thrust aside my feet,

And they cast up against me their ways of destruction.

13 They ¹³mar my path,
They set forward my calamity.

Even men that have no helper.

14 ¹⁴As through a wide breach they come:
In the midst of the ruin they roll themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me,
¹⁵They chase ¹⁶mine honour as the wind;

And my welfare is passed away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out ¹⁷within
me;

Days of affliction have taken hold upon
me.

17 In the night season my bones are ¹⁸pierced ¹⁹in me,

And ²⁰the pains that gnaw me take no rest.

18 ²¹By the great force of my disease is my garment disfigured:

It bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the mire,
And I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not answer me:

I stand up, and thou lookest at me.

21 Thou art turned to be cruel to me:
With the might of thy hand thou perseestest me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind, thou causest me to ride upon it;

And thou dissolvest me in the storm.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death,

And to ²²the house appointed for all living.

24 ²³Surely against a ruinous heap he will not put forth his hand;

Though it be in his destruction, one may utter a cry because of these things.

25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble?

Was not my soul grieved for the needy?

26 When I looked for good, then evil came;
And when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boil, and rest not;
Days of affliction are come upon me.

28 I go ²⁴mourning without the sun:
I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.

29 I am a brother to jackals,
A companion to ostriches.

30 My skin is black, and falleth from me,
And my bones are burned with heat.

31 Therefore is my harp turned to mourning,

And my pipe into the voice of them that weep.

31 I made a covenant with mine eyes;
How then should I look upon a maid?

2 ²⁵For what is the portion of God from above,

And the heritage of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is it not calamity to the unrighteous,
And disaster to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he see my ways,
And number all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity,
And my foot hath hastened to deceit;

6 (Let me be weighed in an even balance,

That God may know mine integrity;)

7 If my step hath turned out of the way,
And mine heart walked after mine eyes,

And if any spot hath cleaved to mine hands:

8 Then let me sow, and let another eat;
Yea, let ²⁶the produce of my field be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been enticed unto a woman,

And I have laid wait at my neighbour's door:

10 Then let my wife grind unto another,
And let others bow down upon her.

11 For that were an heinous crime;
Yea, it were an iniquity to be punished

And would root out all mine increase.
13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant,
When they contended with me:

14 What then shall I do when God riseth up?

And when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him?

And did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld ¹ the poor from their desire,

Or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

17 Or have eaten my morsel alone,
And the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

18 (Nay, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father,

And I have been her guide from my mother's womb;)

19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing,

Or that the needy had no covering;

20 If his loins have not blessed me,
And if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless,

Because I saw my help in the gate:

22 Then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade,

And mine arm be broken from the bone.

23 For calamity from God was a terror to me,

And by reason of his excellency I could do nothing.

24 If I have made gold my hope,
And have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great,
And because mine hand had gotten much;

26 If I beheld ² the sun when it shined,
Or the moon walking in brightness;

27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed,

And ³ my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judges;

For I should have ⁴ lied to God that is above.

29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me,

Or lifted up myself when evil found him;

30 (Yea, I suffered not my ⁵ mouth to sin
By asking his life with a curse;)

31 If the men of my tent said not,
⁶ Who can find one that hath not been satisfied with his flesh?

32 The stranger did not lodge in the street;
But I opened my doors to ⁷ the traveller;

33 If ⁸ like Adam I covered my transgressions,

By hiding mine iniquity in my bosom;

34 Because I feared the great multitude,

And the contempt of families terrified me,

So that I kept silence, and went not out of the door—

35 Oh that I had one to hear me!

(Lo, here is my ⁹ signature, let the Almighty answer me;)

And that I had the ¹⁰ indictment which mine adversary hath written!

36 Surely I would carry it upon my shoulder;

I would bind it unto me as a crown.

37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps;

As a prince would I ¹¹ go near unto him.

38 If my land cry out against me,

And the furrows thereof weep together;

39 If I have eaten the ¹² fruits thereof without money,

Or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

40 Let ¹³ thistles grow instead of wheat,

And ¹⁴ cockle instead of barley.

The words of Job are ended.

32 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God. Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had ¹⁵ waited to speak unto Job, because they were elder than

he. And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said,

I am young, and ye are very old;

Wherefore I held back, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, And multitude of years should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man, And the breath of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 It is not the great that are wise, Nor the aged that understand judgment.

10 Therefore I ¹⁶ said, Harken to me; I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words, I listened for your reasons,

Whilst ye searched out what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you, And, behold, there was none that convinced Job,

Or that answered his words, among you.

13 ¹⁷ Beware lest ye say, We have found wisdom;

God may vanquish him, not man:

14 For he hath not directed his words against me;

¹ Or, ought that the poor desired

³ Heb. my hand hath kissed my mouth.

⁷ Heb. the way.

⁸ Or, after the manner of men.

¹⁰ Heb. book.

¹¹ Or, present it to him.

¹² Heb. strength.

¹³ Or, thorns.

¹⁴ Or, noisome woods.

¹⁵ Heb. waited for Job with words.

¹⁶ Or, say.

¹⁷ Or, Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom; God thrusteth him down; not man: now he &c.

Neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They are amazed, they answer no more :
They have not a word to say.

16 And shall I wait, because they speak not,
Because they stand still, and answer no more ?

17 I also will answer my part,
I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of words ;

The spirit ¹ within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent ;

Like new ² bottles ³ it is ready to burst.

20 I will speak, that I may ⁴ be refreshed ;
I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, respect any man's person ;

Neither will I give flattering titles unto any man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles ;

Else would my Maker soon take me away.

33 Howbeit, Job, I pray thee, hear my speech,
And hearken to all my words.

2 Behold now, I have opened my mouth,
My tongue hath spoken in my ⁵ mouth.

3 My words shall utter the uprightness of my heart :

And that which my lips know they shall speak sincerely.

4 The spirit of God hath made me,
And the breath of the Almighty giveth me life.

5 If thou canst, answer thou me ;
Set thy words in order before me, stand forth.

6 Behold, ⁶ I am toward God even as thou art :

I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid,

Neither shall my pressure be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing,

And I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am clean, without transgression ;
I am innocent, neither is there iniquity
in me :

10 Behold, he findeth ⁷ occasions against
me,

He counteth me for his enemy ;

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks,
He marketh all my paths.

12 ⁸ Behold, I will answer thee, in this thou art not just ;

For God is greater than man.

13 ⁹ Why dost thou strive against him ?

For he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh ¹⁰ once,

Yea twice, though man regardeth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night,

When deep sleep falleth upon men,

In slumberings upon the bed ;

16 Then he ¹¹ openeth the ears of men,
And sealeth their instruction,

17 ¹² That he may withdraw man from his purpose,

And hide pride from man ;

18 ¹³ He keepeth back his soul from the pit,
And his life from perishing by the ¹⁴ sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed,

¹⁵ And with continual strife in his bones :

20 So that his life abhorreth bread,

And his soul dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen ;

And his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the pit,
And his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be with him ¹⁶ an angel,

An interpreter, one ¹⁷ among a thousand,

To shew unto man ¹⁸ what is right for him ;

24 ¹⁹ Then he is gracious unto him, and saith,

Deliver him from going down to the pit,

I have found a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's ;

He returneth to the days of his youth :

26 He prayeth unto God, and he is favourable unto him ;

So that he seeth his face with joy :

And he restoreth unto man his righteousness.

27 ²⁰ He singeth before men, and saith,
I have sinned, and perverted that which was right,

And ²¹ it profited me not :

28 He hath redeemed my soul from going into the pit,

And my life shall behold the light.

29 Lo, all these things doth God work,

Twice, yea thrice, with a man,

30 To bring back his soul from the pit,
That he may be enlightened with the light of ²² the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me :

Hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer
me :

Speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, hearken thou unto me :

Hold thy peace, and I will teach thee wisdom.

34 Moreover Elihu answered and said,
² Hear my words, ye wise men ;

And give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 For the ear trieth words,

As the palate tasteth meat.

8 Or, Only understand

9 Or, as read by some ancient versions, Who saith to... vile, and to... wicked; that respecteth &c.

10 Or, and at night the people &c.

11 Or, without inquisition

And God hath taken away my right:
6¹ Notwithstanding my right I am accounted a liar;
2 My wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.
7 What man is like Job,
Who drinketh up scolding like water?
8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity,
And walketh with wicked men.
9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing
That he should ³delight himself with God.
10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding:
Far be it from God, that he should do wickedness;
And from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him,
And cause every man to find according to his ways.
12 Yea, of a surety, God will not do wickedly,
Neither will the Almighty pervert judgement.
13 Who gave him a charge over the earth?
Or who hath ⁴disposed the whole world?
14⁵ If he set his heart ⁶upon ⁷man,
If he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;
15 All flesh shall perish together,
And man shall turn again unto dust.
16⁸ If now thou hast understanding, hear this:
Hearken to the voice of my words.
17 Shall even one that hateth right govern?
And wilt thou condemn him that is just and mighty?
18⁹ Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art vile?
Or to nobles, Ye are wicked?
19 How much less to him that respecteth not the persons of princes,
Nor regardeth the rich more than the poor?
For they all are the work of his hands.
20 In a moment they die, ¹⁰even at midnight;
The people are shaken and pass away,
And the mighty are taken away without hand.
21 For his eyes are upon the ways of a man,
And he seeth all his goings.
22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death,
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
23 For he needeth not further to consider a man,
That he should go before God in judgement.
24 He breaketh in pieces mighty men ¹¹*in ways* past finding out,
And setteth others in their stead.

25 Therefore he taketh knowledge of their works;
And he overturneth them in the night, so that they are ¹²destroyed.
26 He striketh them as wicked men
¹³In the open sight of others;
27 Because they turned aside from following him,
And would not have regard to any of his ways:
28¹⁴ So that they caused the cry of the poor to come unto him,
And he heard the cry of the afflicted.
29 When he giveth quietness, who then can condemn?
And when he hideth his face, who then can behold him?
Whether it be done unto a nation, or unto a man, alike:
30 That the godless man reign not,
That there be none to ensnare the people.
31 For hath any said unto God,
I have borne chastisement, ¹⁵I will not offend any more:
32 That which I see not teach thou me:
If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more?
33 Shall his recompence be as thou wilt, that thou refusest it?
For thou must choose, and not I:
Therefore speak what thou knowest.
34 Men of understanding will say unto me, Yea, every wise man that heareth me:
35 Job speaketh without knowledge, And his words are without wisdom.
36 Would that Job were tried unto the end,
Because of his answering like wicked men.
37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin,
He clappeth his hands among us,
And multiplieth his words against God.
35 Moreover Elihu answered and said,
2 Thinkest thou this to be thy right,
Or sayest thou, My righteousness is more than God's,
3 That thou sayest, What advantage will it be unto thee?
And, What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?
4 I will answer thee,
And thy companions with thee.
5 Look unto the heavens, and see;
And behold the skies, which are higher than thou.
6 If thou hast sinned, what doest thou against him?
And if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?
7 If thou be righteous, what givest thou him?
Or what receiveth he of thine hand?
8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art;
And thy righteousness may profit a son of man.

12 Heb. crushed.

13 Heb. In the place of be-holders

14 Or, That they might cause... and that he might hear

15 Or, though I offend not

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out;
They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But none saith, Where is God my Maker,

Who giveth songs in the night;

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth,

And maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 There they cry, ¹but none giveth answer,

Because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not hear vanity,
Neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 How much less when thou sayest
²thou beholdest him not,

The cause is before him, and thou waitest for him!

15 But now, because he hath not visited in his anger,

³Neither doth he greatly regard arrogance;

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vanity;

He multiplieth words without knowledge.

36 Elihu also proceeded, and said,

2 ⁴Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee;
For ⁵I have yet somewhat to say on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar,
And will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words are not false:
One that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any;

He is mighty in strength of ⁶understanding.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked:
But giveth to the afflicted their right.

7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous:

But with kings upon the throne
He setteth them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be bound in fetters,
And be taken in the cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their work,
And their transgressions, that they have believed themselves proudly.

10 He openeth also their ear to instruction,
And commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they hearken and serve him,
They shall spend their days in prosperity,

And their years in ⁷pleasures.

12 But if they hearken not, they shall perish by ⁸the sword,

And they shall die without knowledge.

13 But they that are godless in heart lay up anger:

They cry not for help when he bindeth them.

14 ⁹They die in youth,
And their life perisheth ¹⁰among the ¹¹unclean.

15 He delivereth the afflicted ¹²by his affliction,

And openeth their ear ¹³in oppression.

16 Yea, he would have ¹⁴led thee away ¹⁵out of distress

Into a broad place, where there is no straitness;

And that which is set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou ¹⁶art full of the judgement of the wicked:

Judgement and justice take hold on thee.

18 ¹⁷Because there is wrath, beware lest thou be ¹⁸led away by thy sufficiency;

Neither let the greatness of the ransom turn thee aside.

19 ¹⁹Will thy riches suffice, ²⁰that thou be not in distress,

Or all the forces of thy strength?

20 Desire not the night,
When peoples ²¹are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity:
For this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God doeth loftily in his power:
Who is a teacher like unto him?

23 Who hath enjoined him his way?
Or who can say, Thou hast wrought unrighteousness?

24 Remember that thou magnify his work,
Whereof men have sung.

25 All men have looked thereon;
Man beholdeth it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not;

The number of his years is unsearchable.

27 For he draweth up the drops of water,
Which distil in rain ²²from ²³his vapour:

28 Which the skies pour down
And drop upon man abundantly.

29 Yea, can any understand the spreadings of the clouds,

The thunderings of his pavilion?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light ²⁴around him;

And he ²⁵covereth the bottom of the sea.

31 For by these he judgeth the peoples;
He giveth meat in abundance.

32 He covereth his hands with the ²⁶lightning;

And giveth it a charge ²⁷that it strike the mark.

33 The noise thereof telleth concerning ²⁸him,

The cattle also concerning ²⁹the storm that cometh up.

37 At this also my heart trembleth,
And is moved out of its place.

2 Harken ye unto the noise of his voice,
And the ³⁰sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He sendeth it forth under the whole heaven,
And his ¹lightning unto the ²ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roareth;
He thundereth with the voice of his majesty:
And he stayeth them not when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice;
Great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snow, Fall thou on the earth;
Likewise to the shower of rain,
And to the showers of his mighty rain.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man;
That all men whom he hath made may know it.

8 Then the beasts go into coverts,
And remain in their dens.

9 Out of ³the chamber of the south cometh the storm:

And cold out of the ⁴north.

10 By the breath of God ice is given:
And the breadth of the waters is ⁵straitened.

11 Yea, he ladeth the thick cloud with moisture;
He spreadeth abroad the cloud of his ¹lightning:

12 And it is turned round about by his guidance,
That they may do whatsoever he commandeth them

Upon the face of the habitable world:

13 Whether it be for correction, or for his ⁶land,

Or for mercy, that he cause it to come.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job:
Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know how God layeth his charge upon them,
And causeth the ¹lightning of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds,
The wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm,

⁸When the earth is still by reason of the south wind?

18 Canst thou with him spread out the sky.
Which is strong as a molten mirror?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him;
For we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I would speak?

⁹Or should a man wish that he were swallowed up?

21 And now men ¹⁰see not the light which is bright in the skies:

But the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

22 Out of the north cometh ¹¹golden splendour:

God hath upon him terrible majesty.

23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out; he is excellent in power:
And ¹²in judgement and plenteous justice he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore fear him:
He regardeth not any that are wise of heart.

38 Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel By words without knowledge?

3 Gird up now thy loins like a man;

For I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth?

Declare, ¹³if thou hast understanding.

5 Who determined the measures thereof, ¹⁴if thou knowest?

Or who stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon were the ¹⁵foundations thereof ¹⁶fastened?

Or who laid the corner stone thereof;

7 When the morning stars sang together, And all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors,
When it brake forth, ¹⁷as if it had issued out of the womb;

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof,
And thick darkness a swaddlingband for it,

10 And ¹⁸prescribed for it my ¹⁹decree,
And set bars and doors,

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further;

And here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days began,

And caused the dayspring to know its place;

13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth,
And the wicked be shaken out of it?

14 It is changed as clay under the seal;
And all things stand forth ²⁰as a garment:

15 And from the wicked their light is withholden,
And the high arm is broken.

16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea?

Or hast thou walked in the ²¹recesses of the deep?

17 Have the gates of death been revealed unto thee?

Or hast thou seen the gates of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou comprehended the breadth of the earth?

Declare, if thou knowest it all.

19 Where is the way to the dwelling of light,
And as for darkness, where is the place thereof;

20 That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof,

12 Or, to judge me it... he doeth no violence

9 Or, If a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

10 Or, cannot look on the light when it is bright in the skies, when the wind hath passed, and cleansed them

11 Heb. gold.

And that thou shouldest discern the paths to the house thereof?

21 Doubtless, thou knowest, for thou wast then born,

And the number of thy days is great!

22 Hast thou entered the treasures of the snow,

Or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,

23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble,

Against the day of battle and war?

24¹ By what way is the light parted, Or the east wind scattered upon the earth?

25 Who hath cleft a channel for the water-flood,

Or a way for the lightning of the thunder;

26 To cause it to rain on a land where no man is;

On the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

27 To satisfy the waste and desolate ground;

And to cause the ²tender grass to spring forth?

28 Hath the rain a father?

Or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

29 Out of whose womb came the ice?

And the hoary frost of heaven, who hath ³gendered it?

30 The waters ⁴are hidden as with stone, And the face of the deep ⁵is frozen.

31 Canst thou bind the ⁶cluster of the Pleiades,

Or loose the bands of Orion?

32 Canst thou lead forth ⁷the Mazzaroth in their season?

Or canst thou guide the Bear with her ⁸train?

33 Knowest thou the ordinances of the heavens?

Canst thou establish the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds,

That abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send forth lightnings, that they may go,

And say unto thee, Here we are?

36 Who hath put wisdom in the ⁹inward parts?

Or who hath given understanding to the ¹⁰mind?

37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom?

Or who can ¹¹pour out the bottles of heaven,

38 When the dust runneth into a mass, And the clods cleave fast together?

39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lioness?

Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,

40 When they couch in their dens, And abide in the covert to lie in wait?

41 Who provideth for the raven his food,

When his young ones cry unto God,

And wander for lack of meat?

39 Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth?

Or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil?

Or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young,

They cast out their sorrows.

4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up in the open field;

They go forth, and ¹²return not again.

5 Who hath sent out the wild ass free?

Or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?

6 Whose house I have made the wilderness,

And the salt land his dwelling place.

7 He scorneth the tumult of the city, Neither heareth he the shoutings of the ¹³driver.

8 The range of the mountains is his pasture,

And he searcheth after every green thing.

9 Will the ¹⁴wild-ox be content to serve thee?

Or will he abide by thy crib?

10 Canst thou bind the wild-ox with his band in the furrow?

Or will he harrow the valleys after thee?

11 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great?

Or wilt thou leave to him thy labour?

12 Wilt thou confide in him, that he will bring home thy seed,

And gather the corn of thy threshing-floor?

13 The wing of the ostrich rejoiceth;

But are her pinions and feathers ¹⁵kindly?

14 For she leaveth her eggs on the earth, And warmeth them in the dust,

15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them,

Or that the wild beast may trample them.

16 She ¹⁶is hardened against her young ones, as if they were not hers:

Though her labour be in vain, she is without fear;

17 Because God hath ¹⁷deprived her of wisdom,

Neither hath he imparted to her understanding.

18 What time she ¹⁸lifteth up herself on high,

She scorneth the horse and his rider.

19 Hast thou given the horse his might?

Hast thou clothed his neck with ¹⁹the quivering mane?

20 Hast thou made him to leap as a locust?

The glory of his snorting is terrible.

21²⁰ He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength:

He goeth out to meet ²¹the armed men.

22 He mocketh at fear, and is not dismayed;
Neither turneth he back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattleth ¹ against him,
The flashing spear and the javelin.
24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage;
² Neither believeth he that it is the voice of the trumpet.
25 As oft as the trumpet soundeth he saith, Aha!
And he smelleth the battle afar off,
The thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
26 Doth the hawk soar by thy wisdom,
And stretch her wings toward the south?
27 Doth the eagle mount up at thy command,
And make her nest on high?
28 She dwelleth on the rock, and hath her lodging there,
Upon the crag of the rock, and the strong hold.
29 From thence she spieth out the prey;
Her eyes behold it afar off.
30 Her young ones also suck up blood:
And where the slain are, there is she.
40 Moreover the Lord answered Job, and said,
2 Shall he that cavilleth contend with the Almighty?
He that argueth with God, let him answer it.
3 Then Job answered the Lord, and said,
4 Behold, I am of small account; what shall I answer thee?
I lay mine hand upon my mouth.
5 Once have I spoken, and I will not answer;
Yea twice, but I will proceed no further.
6 Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
7 Gird up thy loins now like a man:
I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
8 Wilt thou even disannul my judgment?
Wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be justified?
9 Or hast thou an arm like God?
And canst thou thunder with a voice like him?
10 Deck thyself now with excellency and dignity;
And array thyself with honour and majesty.
11 Pour forth the overflowings of thine anger:
And look upon every one that is proud, and abase him.
12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low;
And tread down the wicked where they stand.
13 Hide them in the dust together;

Bind their faces in the hidden place.
14 Then will I also confess of thee
That thine own right hand can save thee.
15 Behold now ³ behemoth, which I made with thee;
He eateth grass as an ox.
16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins,
And his force is in the muscles of his belly.
17 He moveth his tail like a cedar:
The sinews of his thighs are knit together.
18 His bones are as tubes of brass;
His ⁴ limbs are like bars of iron.
19 He is the chief of the ways of God:
⁵ He only that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.
20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food;
Where all the beasts of the field do play.
21 He lieth under the lotus trees,
In the covert of the reed, and the fen.
22 The lotus trees cover him with their shadow;
The willows of the brook compass him about.
23 Behold, if a river ⁶ overflow, he trembleth not:
He is confident, though Jordan swell even to his mouth.
24 Shall any take him when he is on the watch,
Or pierce through his nose with a snare?
41 Canst thou draw out ⁷ leviathan with a fish hook?
Or press down his tongue with a cord?
2 Canst thou put ⁸ a rope into his nose?
Or pierce his jaw through with a ⁹ hook?
3 Will he make many supplications unto thee?
Or will he speak soft words unto thee?
4 Will he make a covenant with thee,
That thou shouldest take him for a servant for ever?
5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird?
Or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?
6 Shall the bands of fishermen make traffic of him?
Shall they part him among the merchants?
7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons,
Or his head with fish spears?
8 Lay thine hand upon him;
Remember the battle, and do so no more.
9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain:
Shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
10 None is so fierce that he dare stir him up:
Who then is he that can stand before me?
11 Who hath first given unto me, that I should repay him?

³ That is,
the hippopotamus.

⁴ Or, ribs

⁵ Or,
He that made him hath furnished him with his sword

[Ch. xli. 1 in Heb.]

Whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not keep silence concerning his limbs,

Nor his mighty strength, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can ¹strip off his outer garment? Who shall come within his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face?

²Round about his teeth is terror.

15 His ³strong scales are his pride, Shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, That no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another; They stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 His neesings flash forth light, And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning torches, And sparks of fire leap forth.

20 Out of his nostrils a smoke goeth, As of a seething pot and burning rushes.

21 His breath kindleth coals, And a flame goeth forth from his mouth.

22 In his neck abideth strength, And terror danceth before him.

23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: They are firm upon him; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone; Yea, firm as the nether millstone.

25 When he raiseth himself up, the mighty are afraid: By reason of consternation they are beside themselves.

26 If one lay at him with the sword, it cannot avail; Nor the spear, the dart, nor the ⁴pointed shaft.

27 He counteth iron as straw, And brass as rotten wood.

28 The ⁵arrow cannot make him flee: Slingstones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Clubs are counted as stubble: He laugheth at the rushing of the javelin.

30 His underparts are like sharp potsherd: He spreadeth as it were a threshing wain upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: He maketh the sea like ointment.

32 He maketh a path to shine after him; One would think the deep to be boary.

33 Upon earth there is not his like, That is made without fear.

34 He beholdeth every thing that is high: He is king over all the ⁶sons of pride.

42 Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

2 I know that thou canst do all things, And that no purpose of thine can be restrained.

3 Who is this that hideth counsel without knowledge?

Therefore have I uttered that which I understood not, Things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak;

⁸I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I had heard of thee by the hearing of the ear;

But now mine eye seeth thee,

6 Wherefore I ⁹abhor myself, and repent In dust and ashes.

7 And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

8 Now therefore, take unto you seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you; for him will I accept, that I deal not with you after your folly; for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: and the LORD ac-

10 cepted Job. And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: and the LORD gave Job

11 twice as much as he had before. Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him concerning all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a ¹⁰piece of money, and every one a ring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: and he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

13 He had also seven sons and three daughters. And he called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name

15 of the third, Keren-happuch. And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job; and their father gave them inheritance

16 among their brethren. And after this Job lived an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, 17 even four generations. So Job died, being old and full of days.
